quick-ly

1 fast:

- ⚙ We need to get this finished as quickly as possible.
- ⚙ Kids grow up so quickly these days.

2 after only a very short time [= soon]:

- ⚙ I realized fairly quickly that this wasn't going to be easy.

3 for a short time:

- ⚙ I'll just quickly nip into that shop.
- ⚙ 'Have you talked to Vera about it yet?' 'Just quickly.'

She sings beautifully.

Karen is incredibly intelligent.

He drives very well.

Fortunately, I had brought an umbrella.

■ Adverbs give us information about...

Adverbs of Manner

- We use an adverb of manner to say how something happens or how something is done.

They answer questions such as “how?” or “in what way?”:

He eats very healthily.

John writes quickly.

Old people usually drive slowly.

- We use adverbs of manner after a verb to describe the verb or after an object if there is one:

She plays the guitar well.

Mark drives carefully.

Adjectives & Adverbs of Manner

Have you seen him lately?

A top-down view of a workspace on a light-colored wooden desk. A silver laptop is open on the left. To its right is a white mug filled with dark coffee. In the center, a spiral-bound notebook with a white cover is open, displaying the title 'Position of Adverbs'. A silver pen lies on the notebook. To the right of the notebook are two pencils and a small, lined sticky note. Several pieces of crumpled white paper are scattered on the desk.

Position of Adverbs

INITIAL POSITION

Comment Adverbs:

- Luckily, nobody got hurt.
- Unfortunately, we arrived late.

Sometimes, usually, normally
(mid-position more common):

- Sometimes he can be stubborn.
- Usually we eat out at the weekend.

MID POSITION

Adverbs of Manner (Literary style or with passive verbs):

- She carefully opened the box.
- They were seriously injured.

Adverbs of Frequency:

- I usually work on Sundays.
- She's hardly ever late for class.

Most other Adverbs:

- We've just finished the report.
- She's already seen this film.

FINAL POSITION

Adverbs of Manner:

- She always speaks very quickly.
- She can dance salsa marvelously.

Adverbs of Place:

- They met by chance in England.
- I haven't seen him anywhere.

Adverbs of Time:

- It rained quite heavily yesterday.
- They'll be here soon.

Enough
vs

Too

- Too means “demasiado” in Spanish, that is more than is needed, acceptable, wanted, etc. We generally use this expression to explain why something is impossible.
 - It's used before adjectives...

This exercise is too easy. I'm going to do a different one.

Mary is too young to get married.

The food is too hot to eat.

grammar

- ...or before adverbs.

I don't check my emails at night. I get home too late.

It was raining too heavily when the accident happened.

Mary was doing too well in the course to give up.

- After the adjective or adverb we need to use "to" + the infinitive.

He's too young to drive.

It's too early to go to her house.

- Enough means “lo suficiente / lo suficientemente” in Spanish, that is sufficient. We generally use this expression to explain why something is possible.
- It's used after adjectives...

Ben runs fast enough, he will win the race.

He is strong enough, he can overcome the problem.

She is intelligent enough, she will pass the test.

TOO & ENOUGH

- ... after adverbs...

I arrived early enough.

I think she spoke clearly enough. Everybody understood what she meant.

- After the adjective or adverb we have to use "to" + the infinitive.

He isn't old enough to drive.

He isn't strong enough to lift it.

- We can use enough + noun to say that something is the correct number or amount. We use it before nouns:

She has enough money.

We didn't have enough time to visit London Bridge.

Are there enough eggs to make an omelet?

Richard has enough talent to become a singing star.

There is enough bread for lunch.
