MODALS FOR PREFERENCE

WOULD YOU RATHER?

MODAL	USE	TENSE	EXAMPLES
Would rather / Would rather not	▪ To express a preference when different choices are possible.	Present	▪ I'm so tired, I would rather stay home. ▪ I would rather go to the beach than to the mountain. ▪ I'd rather not catch the bus. Let's take a taxi instead. ▪ Would you rather have red or white wine?

Prefer
Would Prefer
Would rather

MODALS	USE	TENSE	EXAMPLES
Would prefer / Prefer	▪ To talk about preferences. We like certain things more than others.	Present	▪ I'd prefer to stay in a hotel near the airport. ▪ He likes running but he prefers cycling. ▪ I prefer coffee to tea for breakfast. ▪ Would you prefer the window seat or the aisle?

► Prefer and would prefer can be followed by a noun:

- Would you like to have a cup of tea? -Thanks, but I'd prefer coffee.

We prefer rock music.

► Prefer and would prefer can be followed by the gerund to talk about general preference (i.e. what we prefer in general, on every occasion).

I like to go out shopping but I prefer doing it online.

Generally, I prefer eating out at the weekend.

► Prefer and would prefer can also be followed by the infinitive to talk about specific preference:

When I don't have time to go out shopping, I prefer to do it online.

I prefer to eat at home when I am with friends.

- When you wake up in the mornings, do you prefer coffee or tea?
- Me: I prefer nobody is talking to me!

➤ To ask questions we can use would or do with prefer and rather.

Would you rather sit down?

Would you prefer to sit down?

Do you prefer (to) / rather sit down?

MODALS FOR ...

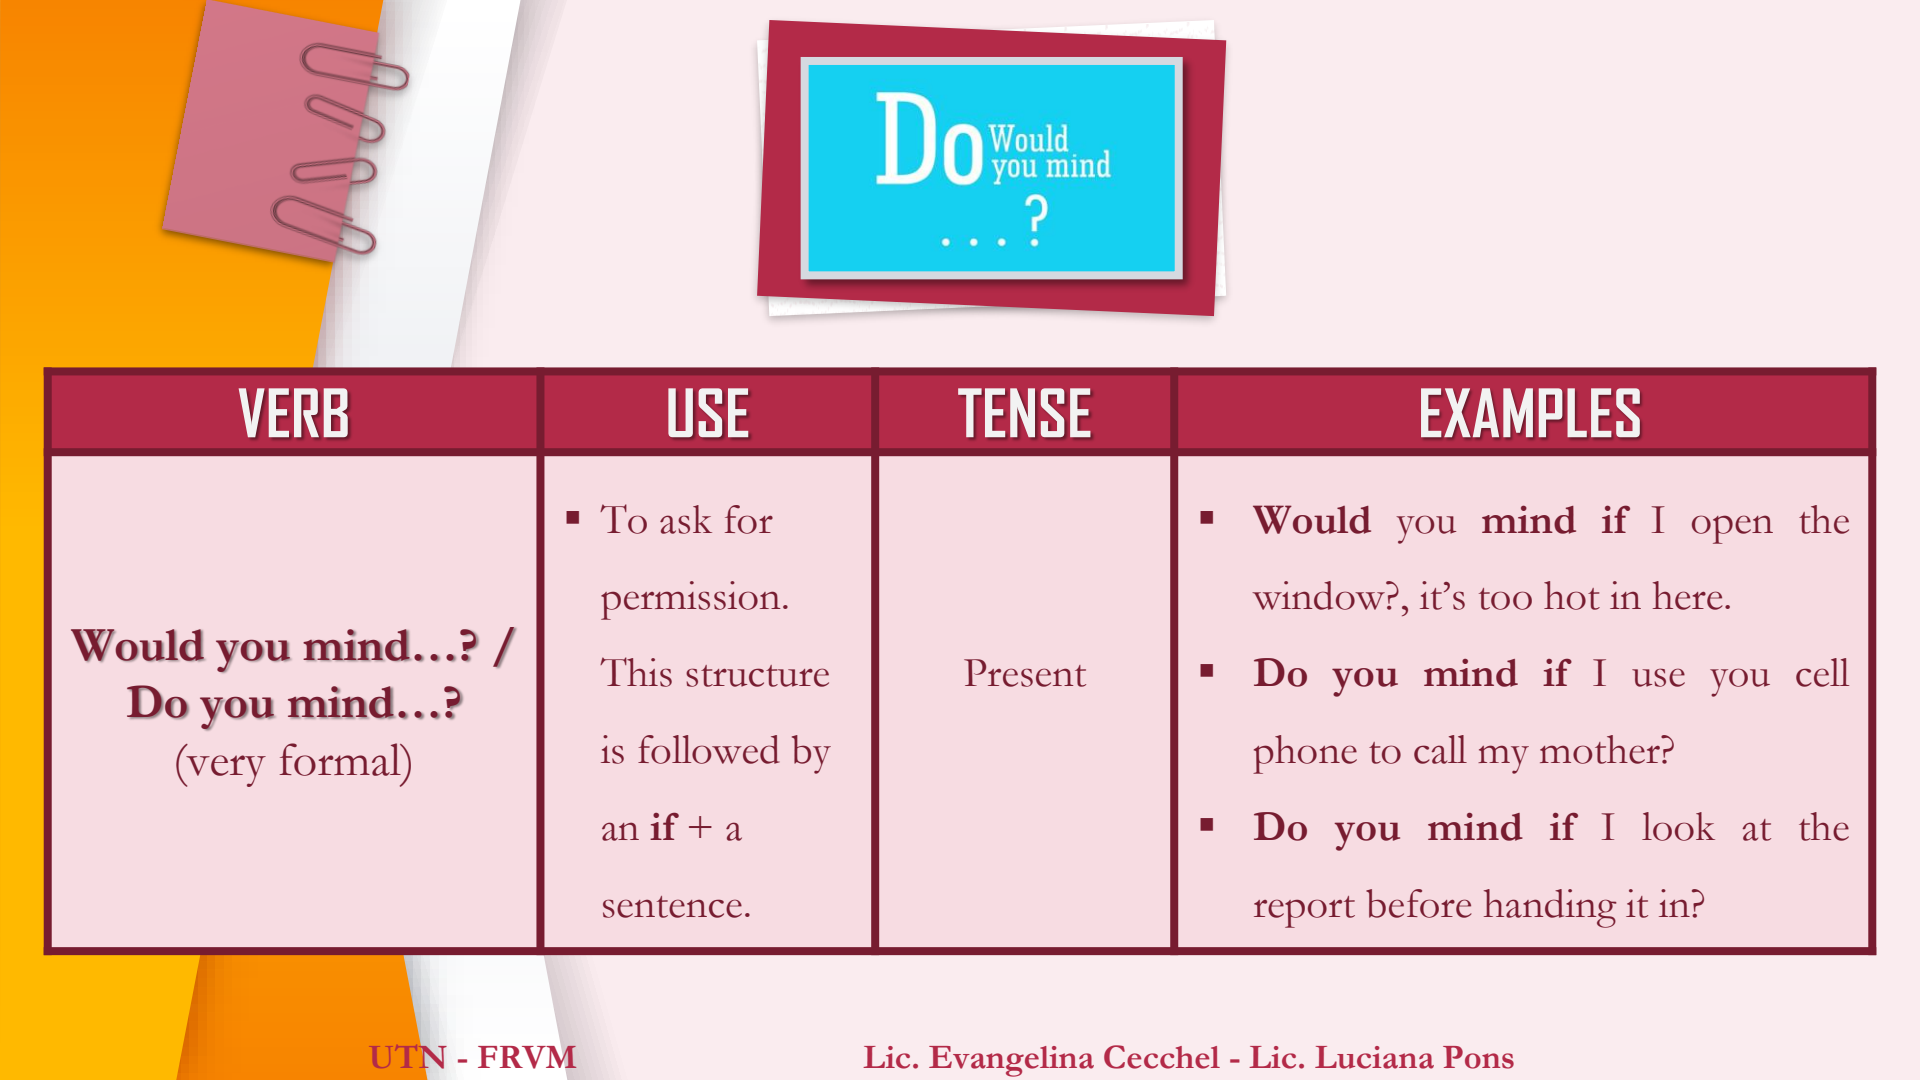

MODALS	USE	TENSE	EXAMPLES
Can (least formal) Could (more formal) May (more formal)	To ask for permission.	Present	Can I bring a friend to your party? Can I make a suggestion? Could I leave earlier? I have a doctor's appointment. Could I borrow your pen for a moment? May I speak to you for a moment? May I see your passport, please?

MODALS	USE	TENSE	EXAMPLES
Can / can't Could / couldn't May	▪ To give / grant permission or deny permission.	Present	▪ You can't smoke in the apartment, but you can smoke in the terrace. ▪ I couldn't open the present until my birthday! ▪ You may sit next to me if you want.

Do^{Would you mind} ...?

VERB	USE	TENSE	EXAMPLES
Would you mind...? / Do you mind...? (very formal)	▪ To ask for permission. This structure is followed by an if + a sentence.	Present	▪ Would you mind if I open the window?, it's too hot in here. ▪ Do you mind if I use you cell phone to call my mother? ▪ Do you mind if I look at the report before handing it in?

► We usually answer questions about permission with the following expressions:

Yes, sure. / Sure.

Certainly.

Of course.

Go ahead.

► We can also use may and can in short answers about permission, but we never use could.

► Remember, to a “Would you / Do you mind...?” question, the answers should be the following:

No, not at all.

No, I don’t mind.

YOU'RE NOT ALLOWED TO NOT ALLOW ME.

VERB	USE	TENSE	EXAMPLES
Be allowed to	▪ To express permission to do something.	All tenses	▪ We are not allowed to have pets in our building. ▪ Excuse me, am I allowed to take pictures here? ▪ If we don't show the tickets, we won't be allowed to enter the stadium.
